Many do not realize that, in spite of being housed at the University of Central Florida, The Florida Review receives no financial support from the institution and is a self-supporting endeavor. Your gift will allow us to continue to publish the finest in contemporary writing (and art, film, digital stories, reviews, and interviews) from Florida and beyond, as well as to train students in editing and publishing. Please make donation checks/money orders to UCF Foundation – The Florida Review (separate from any subscription check or money order) but send to the same address above. We appreciate all donations!
