¹ This chart is NOT meant to replace either the degree audit or the requirements in the Undergraduate catalog. This chart is designed to clarify items in those documents. Always refer to your degree audit and the catalog to understand the department's and university's requirements for the degree.

² A student must earn a "C" or higher for history courses to count towards the major

³ In certain cases, with the approval of the History Department, 2 upper-level courses can substitute for one of these sequences

⁴ AMH2010-2020 are required as prerequisites but do not count toward the credits for the degree

⁵ Upper-Level courses are those numbering 3000 and 4000. Most HIS and WOH courses toward toward upper-level regional categories (i.e. LAH, ASH, EUH)

Judaic Studies Course Conversion

• JST3149 The Jewish View of Jesus	counts as ASH
• JST3401 Jewish People in Antiquity	counts as ASH

Honors Undergraduate Thesis

Why complete an HUT?

- Conduct undergraduate research
- Work closely with a History faculty member
- Develop strong research and writing skills
- Contribute original historical knowledge
- Share this knowledge at conferences and with the community

Honors Undergraduate Thesis (HUT) is UCF's oldest and most prestigious undergraduate research program. It is designed to assist juniors and seniors to develop their own independent research project under the direction of a thesis advisor and faculty thesis committee.

Students do not need to be Honors students to take advantage of the HUT program; it is available to all qualified UCF students.

The Burnett Honors College partners with all colleges in sponsoring HUT Scholarships. These $1,000 scholarships are awarded every fall and spring!

At a minimum, the following criteria must be met for admission into the Honors Undergraduate Thesis program:

- Sixty (60) completed hours of college credit
- Twelve (12) completed upper division hours of college credit
- At least a 3.4 UCF or Overall GPA
- Have at least two semesters remaining prior to graduation

CONTACT

Check the website for more information: honors.ucf.edu/hut/about or email honors@ucf.edu to make an appointment and discuss the HUT process with the Office of Honors Research.
