TWO HISTORIC MUSEUMS NEED YOUR HELP!

The Ponce De Leon Inlet Lighthouse is a National Historic Landmark including multiple historic buildings and featuring a world-class collection of navigational beacons and tools.

The Constance D. Hunter Historic Pacetti Hotel Museum was a fishing hotel in the 1800s that has become a historic house museum listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Our non-profit preservation association is looking for enthusiastic students interested in learning the various roles involved in managing and operating these historic sites.

Activities/opportunities/skills you might learn here include:

- Handling, cataloging, and restoring historic artifacts
- Digitization of historic documents
- Training in current industry-standard museum software
- Development of lesson plans and education tours
- Public presentations and/or event coordination
- Researching and writing interpretive historical material
- And more! We are open to suggestions and would love to work with you to find a project that is beneficial to your future career.

Interested candidates are encouraged to contact our museum's curator, Felipe De Paula, at 386-761-1821 or emailing fdepaula@ponceinlet.org.
