

Office Use Only
Scholarship Awarded: YES NO Date: _____
Student Notified by: Email Phone Date: _____ By: _____

Temple Shalom of Deltona Endowed Scholarship in Judaic Studies Application

In 2022, as a result of a generous gift to the university, the Temple Shalom of Deltona Endowed Scholarship Fund began. The purpose of this scholarship is to provide awards to UCF students enrolled in the College studying in the field of Judaic Studies.

- Applicant must be enrolled as a UCF full-time undergraduate or graduate student
- Minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA
- Enrolled in courses related to understanding the history, literature and cultural heritage of the Jewish people from among the courses offered by the Judaic Studies Program
- Preference will be given to applicants that submit an essay (500 words or less) describing how taking courses in Judaic Studies will strengthen their educational and career aspirations.

Deadline: December 1, 2024

Return completed application to Kenneth.Hanson@ucf.edu

Incomplete applications cannot be considered

Student Name:
PID:
Address:
City/State/Zip:
Cell Phone:
E-mail Address:
GPA:

Please use the space below to tell us what courses you have taken that relate to understanding the history, literature and cultural heritage of the Jewish people.

Office Use Only

Scholarship Awarded: YES NO Date: _____

Student Notified by: Email Phone Date: _____ By: _____

Please submit an essay (500 words or less) describing how taking courses in Judaic Studies will strengthen their educational and career aspirations.

Signature: _____

Date: _____