

Pabst Steinmetz Foundation Arts & Wellness Innovation Award Application Questions

The Pabst Steinmetz Foundation Arts & Wellness Innovation Awards build sustainable models for arts and wellness innovation across the Central Florida community and UCF campus.

The two awards of $25,000 each are given annually to projects that are focused on interdisciplinary collaboration and sustainable, evidence-based community.

AWARD CRITERIA

- Initiatives should be interdisciplinary and sustainable.
- Community-focused: Applicants must work in partnership with a community organization.
- Cross-disciplinary: Applicants must involve the UCF College of Arts and Humanities and at least one other college, unit or center at the University of Central Florida in each submission.
- All programs, initiatives or projects must contain an evaluation framework, quantitative or qualitative.

More information about the awards is at cah.ucf.edu/research/arts-wellness-innovation-awards/

1. Title of Project
2. Name of Primary Applicant
3. CAH Applicant Information
 - Name
 - Company/Department/division
 - Title
 - Email Address
 - Phone
4. Non-CAH UCF Applicant Information
 - Name
 - Company/Department/division
 - Title
 - Email Address
 - Phone
5. Community Organization Information
 - Name
 - Company/Department/division
 - Title
 - Email Address
 - Phone
6. Additional teammates and affiliations
 - Team member 1
 - Team member 2
 - Team member 3
 - Team member 4
 - Team member 5
7. Describe the initiative, project, program or activity. (500 word maximum)

8. Is this project new or existing? (Radio button)
 - If ongoing, please explain how this award will propel or expand additional research opportunities or other activities. (250 word maximum)
 - If new, how will this project proceed -- if at all -- if this funding is not received? (250 word maximum)
9. Who are the target beneficiaries of your initiative, project, program or activity?
10. How is this proposal unique or innovative to existing initiatives in the community? (250 word maximum)
11. What is the overall community impact of this project? (250 word maximum)
12. Provide a basic project budget explaining how the funds will be used to support the project.
13. Describe any plan for sustaining the initiative beyond the initial funding. (500 word maximum)
14. Describe your evaluation framework, including planning elements (inputs/outputs, activities,) and intended effects (short-term, intermediate, long-term outcomes). (500 word maximum)
15. Preference will be given to proposals that meet the following criteria. Please highlight all statements that your proposal meets.
 - The initiative is cross-disciplinary, and includes the UCF College of Arts and Humanities and at least one other college, unit or center from UCF.
 - The proposal contains an evaluation framework (quantitative or qualitative.)
 - The proposal has the potential to be a sustainable and/or scalable model.
 - This proposal involves at least one community partner.
 - The initiative has a passionate champion(s) for arts and wellness who will continue to sustain and build upon the work awarded.
16. Please explain any of the above criteria your proposal does not meet. (200 word maximum)
17. Supporting materials
 - Primary applicant's CV or resume
 - Co-applicant's CV or resume
18. You may submit up to a maximum of three examples of the applicants' work or other supporting materials.
 - Example 1:
 - Example 2:
 - Example 3:
19. Link to website, portfolio, or other information